

Michelle's Law Notice

Note: Pursuant to Michelle's Law, you are being provided with the following notice because the CMC Investments, Inc. Employee Health Plan's group coverage provides dependent coverage beyond age 26 and bases eligibility for such dependent coverage on student status. Please review the following information with respect to your dependent child's rights under the plan in the event student status is lost.

When a dependent child loses student status for purposes of CMC Investments, Inc. Employee Health Plan's group coverage as a result of a medically necessary leave of absence from a post-secondary educational institution, the CMC Investments, Inc. Employee Health Plan's group coverage will continue to provide coverage during the leave of absence for up to one year, or until coverage would otherwise terminate under the CMC Investments, Inc. Employee Health Plan's group coverage, whichever is earlier.

In order to be eligible to continue coverage as a dependent during such leave of absence:

- The Third-Plan Administrator must receive written certification by a treating physician of the dependent child which states that the child is suffering from a serious illness or injury and that the leave of absence (or other change of enrollment) is medically necessary
